ADVOCATE GENERAL OF THE STATE
Article 165

Article 165 provides office of Advocate General

He is highest Law officer in state

He corresponds to Attorney General

Appointment & Term

- He is appointed by Governor
- He must be a person to be qualified to be Judge of High Court
- In other words
  - He must be Citizen
  - He must have held judicial office for 10 years
  - Or been an Advocate of High court for 10 years
- Neither Term of his office nor procedure & grounds of removal fixed by Constitution
- He holds office during pleasure of Governor
- He resigns when government resigns or replaced
- He receives remuneration as Governor may determine

Articles

Article 165	Advocate General of State
Article 177	Rights of Advocate General with respect to Houses of State Legislature or its committee
Article 194	Powers, Privileges & Immunities of Advocate General

Duties & functions

1. Advice to Government when referred by Governor
2. Perform his duties
3. Discharge functions conferred by Constitution or any other Law
- He can appear before any court of Law within State
- He has right to take part & speak in proceedings of Both houses of State legislature or committee of which he may be named a member but without right to Vote
- He enjoys all privileges & immunities available to member of State Legislature